

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Laurie Ann Schultz is an exemplary spouse to our friend, Bradley David, and the ideal mother to her three children; Andrew, Adam and Liz; and,

Whereas, Laurie is a successful civil engineer who currently works for Brosz Engineering and was previously employed by the South Dakota Department of Transportation; and,

Whereas, Laurie is active in the Pierre community participating in the Zonta Club, Business and Professional Women, the South Dakota Engineering Society, and more importantly league bowling and volleyball; and,

Whereas, Laurie is a member of the elite capitol city club, "Hooters on Scooters", and she is known for her tremendous love of conversation; and,

Whereas, Laurie is a headstrong, good humored, amazing fighter who has overcome a frightening bout with cancer; and,

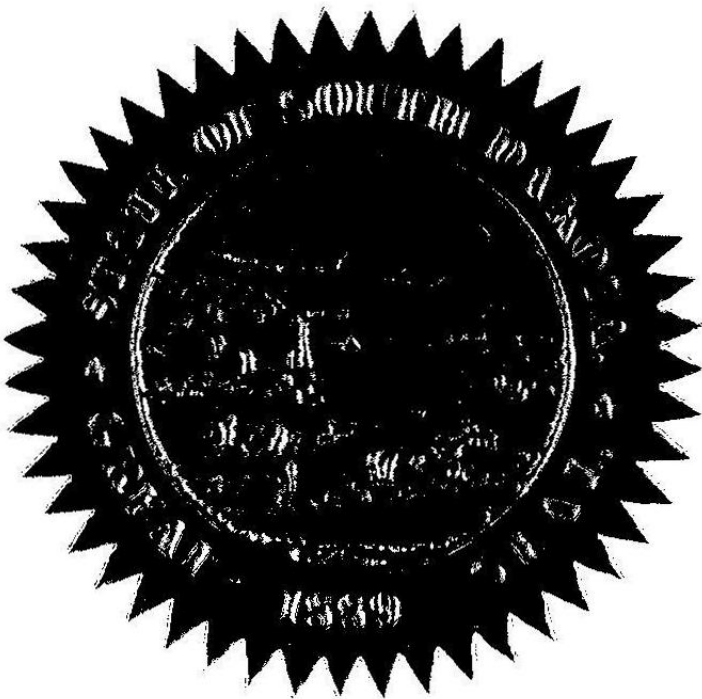

Whereas, Laurie's friends are gathered here tonight to celebrate the good news that Laurie has been declared cancer free; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor and long time friend of this group of former card players to recognize our friend Laurie:

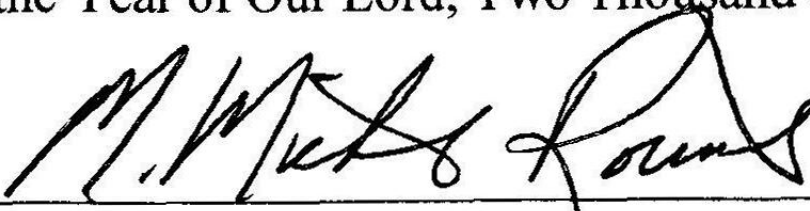

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 28, 2005, as in South Dakota and I join all her many friends in wishing her good health and great happiness for many years to come.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-eighth Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
